

Lethality Assessment Program-Maryland Model (LAP) Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence

Lethality Assessment Program

July 2017

The LAP Team at MNADV is sad to announce that Megan Rosenfeld, Project Director, is leaving her position at the Network. Megan has been an incredible asset to the growth and direction of the LAP across the nation for over three years. She will be deeply missed, and we wish her the best in her next adventure!

Megan says that, "working with the LAP Team at MNADV and implementers across the country has been such a rewarding experience. I appreciate all you've taught me and am hopeful that either you or someone you know will come fill my shoes!"

We're looking for team players with a deep understanding of the LAP who are committed to using innovative, evidence-based standards of practice to reduce intimate partner violence, increase victim safety, and enhance collaboration in every community.

Interested in joining our expanding LAP Team? Current position descriptions are listed here:
